

LETTER CARD.

WINDERMERE AND DISTRICT.

To Mrs E. S. Raff

Queen Sound,

Ontario,
Canada.

P.S. The English daffodils are unsurpassed in loveliness and peaceful beauty. I even, Westmoreland, England did you see them where you were once?

August 2, 1906.

My dear Mrs Raff.

I thank you very much for your kind letter which reached me in time to be a messenger of good will for the voyage. Old Neptune was not in good humor, and we had reason to regret his bad temper very much.

But since our arrival, except for my father's illness, we have had a delightful time. First we went to Greenock, and stayed a week then we took boat, went through the Kyles of Bute, and Crinan Canal to Oban, and to Fort William, and then on the Caledonian Canal to Inverness.

The Highlands are rugged and strong, with a wild beauty - "stern and wild" - all their own. From Inverness we went to the granite city, Aberdeen - on to Stirling, Edinburgh, the Andrews, to Scotts country, Abbotsford, Inverness, Maryburgh, then to Carlisle where in the Cathedral Scott was married, then to this quiet village now in Westmoreland Co. in sight of the hills and green fertile valleys. Last week we visited Furness Abbey and Conistow, paying no tribute to Keswick's country.
Then, this week, we went to Widdow's country, Grasmere, Rydal water, Ulls-water, Thirlmere, Sharncliffe water, and Windermere - and whom should we meet in Grasmere country but Mr & Mrs Blewett.
Later on in the day we met two the Canadian girls, who graduated in Santa Miss. Miss Macintosh & Miss Francis are off to London via Chester, Warrington, Derby, by kindest regards to all in your home. Hope you are having a very happy summer. Very sincerely yours W. F. Addison
